

kendal

With its handsome oak effect framed doors, attractive graining and clean, uncluttered lines Kendal creates an immediate impression - individual touches such as pilasters add even further to the appeal. Complemented by contemporary chrome effect hardware and textured slate effect worktop it looks the very epitome of the modern hardworking kitchen - very much a stylish focus for full-on family living. Alternatively, try a different look featured inset, with solid timber worktops, traditional handles and curved end panels. The solid oak folding doors add to this, making the most of your garden in a practical and stylish way (see pages 146-147).

hamilton

With this prestige kitchen, we've used little more than the outstanding beauty of solid and veneered oak to create a supremely impressive design. The quality of the natural timber speaks for itself; we've simply added Shaker style, framed panelling and elegant satin nickel handles to enhance the radiant, honey-coloured oak. To keep the focus on this magnificent range, we've set it against a very neutral backdrop with a contemporary bias, however, it would be equally at home in stronger or more traditional surroundings.

bright idea...

Show off Hamilton's beauty
with these over-cornice lights.

maldon

Utterly of the moment yet built to serve you handsomely long into the future, Maldon takes classic Shaker style and gives it a refreshing update. Take a look at the cool, birch effect door frontals with their well balanced rails and stiles, complemented by designer worktops and accessories. An altogether original and stunning kitchen with a unique blend of laid back feel and up-front flair.

stylish options...

Shake up the Shaker style even more with the chunky tube bar handle. Also shown here with Spacia Stone tiles in ceramic black, by Amtico (see page 120).

denby

Understated elegance meets total practicality in this gorgeous oak effect family kitchen. Built to take modern living in its stride Denby blends Shaker styling with subtle graining to create a kitchen that combines luxurious looks with down-to-earth practicality. The slate grey ceramic flooring tones beautifully with the worktops and simply shrugs off stains and marks. The ideal spot to enjoy your morning coffee, the smart breakfast bar is natural oak, matching the elegant solid oak folding doors and windows.

opening time...

Bring sunshine inside by simply sliding open the solid oak folding doors.

chilton

The Chilton range has the ability to appear as modern or as classic as you like, depending on your choice of accessories and appliances. Easy on the eye, it's our latest re-invention of the Shaker heritage, finished in mellow cream and boasting distinctive wider rails than stiles. To maintain the ambience of welcoming warmth, try complementing Chilton with solid oak timber worktops and flooring.

signature style...

Complete this kitchen with a oceanus chrome tap, see page 106.

ottawa

Here's a perfect example of how to take a classic design and make it highly contemporary and ultra chic. Simple Shaker panelling forms the basis of this striking look. We've chosen a crisp white colour to add freshness and vitality, and given it a gleaming, glossy finish for that extra modern edge. Matt chrome rectangular knobs add stylish detail and we've teamed Ottawa with a dark laminate worktop for a dramatic contrast.

get the look...

See pages 109-113 for our range of top brand appliances which includes cooker hoods as well as hobs and ovens.

padstow

The traditional style of the Padstow kitchen will grace any home. In soft cream, it features plain drawer frontals and panelled doors, the sink and tap draw upon the traditional heritage of the range whereas the stainless steel appliances add a modern element.

signature style...

Complete this kitchen with polished pewter T-Handles, see page 98.

albany*

Modernism at its best. Combining high-gloss work surfaces with the textural quality of a maple-effect finish. Albany's contemporary good looks merge with the subtle design details that make it so distinctive – like the stylish brushed steel handles. This kitchen works superbly in a modern environment, but is equally at home in a more traditional room.

*Subject to availability.

edmonton*

This contemporary kitchen with its up-to-the-minute beech-effect finish provides style and elegance. Simple, Shaker style doors complete the uncluttered look. The optional stainless steel effect bar handles used here enhance the clean lines. Teamed with contrasting dark worktops and slate-coloured flooring this stunning kitchen is the epitome of modernity.

*Subject to availability.

camberley cream

Offering all the aesthetic appeal of a high-end painted kitchen, this sophisticated design exudes traditional character and charm. Finished in a warm, matt shade of cream with raised and fielded panels for added depth, the effect is complemented here by gently contoured curved end panels and the sheer quality of 40mm solid oak worktops. Complete this traditional look with the latest Spacia Stone tiles in ceramic chocolate by Amtico.

get the look...

12 foot solid oak folding doors from Magnet Trade's range concertina away smoothly to bring you the great outdoors in widescreen (see pages 146-147).

princeton

Princeton means elegance. The framed cream styling, the ceramic sink and stainless steel appliances are enough in themselves to make a kitchen that is a model of taste and sophistication. With the option of traditional or contemporary pilasters, handles and knobs, this range can be styled to two different looks, bringing a truly versatile approach to traditional kitchen styling.

bright ideas...

Princeton can be styled alternatively with contemporary style pilasters and handles to give a very different look.

henley

Created in a warm and practical shade of cream that hints at the past while being right up to the minute, Henley features elegant wider rails than stiles, which are partnered by Shaker style tongue and grooved centre panels. Here, three piece handles and stainless steel accessories provide an eye-catching design contrast, with Magnet Trade solid walnut flooring completing the look. Henley is equally at home in a modern or traditional setting.

want something different?...

For a more traditional feel, team this kitchen up with walnut knobs, see page 99.

hargrave*

Where traditional and contemporary exist side-by-side. Hargrave is a beautiful example of a rustic timber kitchen but is equally at home in a more modern setting. The warm oak frontals and solid frames are elegantly complemented by a contrasting granite effect laminate worktop and discreet pewter handles. Plain glazing completes the look of this most flexible and stylish of kitchens.

*Subject to availability.

individual touches...

Polished pewter handles, glass-fronted cabinets, quirky taps; details such as these can help you give the kitchen your very own personal signature.

davenport

With its sophisticated raised and field fascias and deep, rich walnut effect hues Davenport is a design that glories in its timeless traditional appeal. Available in both doorline and drawerline, Davenport's de luxe features include capacious deep pan drawers. Here Shaker serena panelled doors match the warmth of the walnut, while taurus black gloss worktops create a dramatic contrast and angled steel D handles provide a truly distinctive touch.

get the look...

Add to the elegance and create a warm glow with glazed top boxes lit from within.

magnet 600 contract magnet 500/600

Simplicity and practicality are the order of the day in the Magnet 600 kitchen. All door and drawer frontals are faced both sides with easy-clean melamine, whilst the clean, white finish creates a light, airy feel. Full-width, easy grip aluminium handles and grey lava rock worktops provide an attractive, functional complement. The Contract Magnet range contains 170° hinges as standard and individual 150mm plinths with the doors attached to the unit.

