acadian

The traditional appeal of white painted doors with visible natural ash grain and a square frame blends beautifully with sturdily proportioned top rails and chamfered detailing on the stiles to create a design of true individuality. Corian beach glass worktops add a refreshing retro touch, and the elegant glazed larder units are a smart storage solution as well as yet another stylish feature.

think sink...

The Franke Kubus glass sink in aqua is a distinctive feature which enhances the colour and feel of the worktop.

crème lineaire

Beautifully subtle and remarkably attractive. High gloss frontals in a soft cream finish perfectly combine with the minimalist integrated handleless design. Wall and floor end corner curves are the very latest storage solution, a strong and attractive feature in your kitchen. Zodiac quartz soft mahogany brown worktops in a matt finish perfectly balance with the substantial natural walnut worktops.

shaker cream

Created by America's Shaker community during the 18th Century, perfect proportions and simplicity of craftsmanship have made this style a true classic ever since. Our Shaker range is now in its 15th year and remains hugely popular for its true versatility. Here an integrated canopy combines elegance with functionality, and see how beautifully a modern range style cooker in stainless steel sits with Shaker's timeless appeal. Plain drawer frontals and subtle bevelled edges reflect the authentic Shaker look, perfectly complemented by solid timber worktops, flat frame panelling and a large Belfast sink.

linton

A seamless fusion of contemporary and traditional styling gives Linton its classic simplicity. Subtle hints of natural ash grain are visible through the white painted solid timber frame, and tongue and groove veneered panels beautifully complement the Shaker styling. Here solid walnut timber worktops and a stylish central island unit complete the look. There's even an integrated canopy.

stunning storage...

Behind those stunning cabinet doors the options include a spectacular pull-out larder unit.

studio white featuring curves

Ultimately simple yet incredibly impactful, high gloss painted finish in spectacular white. Curved glazed wall units create an impressive architectural feature, while the distinctive contours of our stylishly curved floor units add to the designer look. Zodiac Vela Brown worktops bring warmth and contrast to the coolness of the white and sleek stainless steel handles to further define the minimalist style.

Curved glazed wall units create an impressive architectural feature.

Simplicity is the essence of elegantly painted Appleby's shaker style. Yet the traditional design can easily be given a modern twist with cutting edge appliances, work surfaces and accessories such as these fashionable pewter handles. Alternatively, you can accentuate the traditional feel by incorporating pilasters and a stand-alone dresser. The tongue and groove end panels add an extra touch of sophistication.

Opt for a premium solid beech sided drawer which comes with soft close as standard. Optional spice drawer insert also available, which includes stainless steel spice jars, knife block and cutlery insert as shown left.

urban lineaire

Inspired by European minimalist trends, sleek and streamlined Urban Lineaire takes contemporary kitchen design in exciting new directions. The high gloss doors with understated integrated handles are complemented here by delicious sparkly blue quartz stone worktops. Urban Lineaire can be as cool and angular as you like, or you can create a striking futuristic effect by incorporating softly curved units.

charleston bone

Charleston Bone's deep panelling, columnar pilasters and ornamental beading are inspired by the architectural elegance of the Edwardian era, creating a beautifully proportioned kitchen with a true sense of occasion. Selecting a combination of glazed, solid and open wall units adds distinction, and the lustrous painted cream finish glows with sophistication.

caldo walnut

The opulence of walnut is balanced by Shaker simplicity and spiced with exciting curved units and chunky end panels to create a truly cutting edge design in Caldo Walnut. Elegant pilasters add grandeur and distinctive features include a built-in wine cooler and stainless steel basket units, with further options for a more traditional feel including a range-style cooker and integrated hood.

rustic oak

Take the traditional warmth of mellow oak with a delightful antique patina and classic pilasters. Add just the right amount of contemporary sophistication with subtly grained drawer fronts. Stir in hidden lighting to bring out the homely flavour. Add options to taste - including a wine rack, angled corner cabinets, clear glazed wall units, an island unit and a dresser complete with plate rack. Delicious.
